

Matt Brown

Co-Founder & MAT Partnership Director

Matt is a Co-Director at Dunbar Education and leads the operations side of the Dunbar Education Group. Matt has worked in recruitment since 2006, and in education recruitment since 2010 and as well as running the operations for the group he also heads up the iCan Teach UK division and still works very closely with our schools in the southern region of the UK. Outside of work Matt is a huge Arsenal fan, and during the tough times for them over the last ten years, he has picked up golf and tennis as hobbies to take his mind off it all.

What our Schools Say

"I have worked with the team at Dunbar Education for almost ten years and they have helped us to recruit staff from Ireland, Canada and within the UK. We have been extremely satisfied with the quality of teachers we have recruited and the service they have provided. I would highly recommend Dunbar Education to any school who are looking for assistance with their teacher recruitment."

- Royal Docks Academy, BMAT

"Both The Chalk Hills & The Stockwood Park Academies have benefited from our partnership with Dunbar Education. Dan and his associates listen to our needs and requirements, and have been able to support us with high quality and high calibre staff during challenging recruitment times. We are proud of our partnership working with Dunbar Education."
