

Dunbar Education is committed to providing training opportunities to candidates to ensure all members of staff have up-to-date, knowledge regarding the safeguarding of children, FGM and the prevention of extremism in education.

Keeping children safe in education (KCSIE)

Statutory guidance for schools and colleges on safeguarding children and safer recruitment.

KCSIE is essential for overall wellbeing and development of all children and young people.

Safeguarding children is everyone's responsibility to ensure that they are protected from harm and abuse, not only whilst they are in school but whilst they are online or within the school's or college's vicinity.

Prevent Training

Prevent is one part of the government's overall counter-terrorism strategy, CONTEST. The aim of Prevent is to:

- tackle the ideological causes of terrorism
- intervene early to support people susceptible to radicalisation
- enable those who have already engaged in terrorism to disengage and rehabilitate

This training is for people working in sectors covered by the Prevent duty, such as:

- education
- health
- local authorities
- police
- criminal justice agencies (prisons, probation and youth justice)

Other sectors that are not covered by the Prevent duty may also complete this training.

Prevent duty courses

In these training courses, you will learn about:

- the Prevent duty
- different forms of extremism and terrorism
- the risk around radicalisation and your supportive role
- making a Prevent referral that is both informed and made with good intention
- the interventions and support available

Female Genital Mutilation (FGM)

FGM is illegal in the UK. Anyone who commits FGM faces up to 14 years in prison, a fine, or both. Anyone found guilty of failing to protect a girl from risk of FGM faces up to 7 years in prison, a fine, or both.

This resource pack includes:

- information on legislation and prevalence
- resources and good practice case studies for local authorities, the police, healthcare professionals and schools
- links to support organisations, clinics and helplines which can help people who think they might be at risk

E-learning

Recognising and preventing FGM training is available for professionals with safeguarding responsibilities.

It gives an introduction to FGM and the action you must take to protect girls who may be at risk.
